SPECIAL EVENT PERMIT APPLICATION

This application must be submitted a minimum of 4 months in advance of the date of the event and can only be accepted as early as Oct 1st the prior year.

• Event must be open/offered to the general public, including Elkhart County residents.

• Special events must be organized by a local community non-profit, area service club, Elkhart county school, or other local government agency or business.
• A Special Event is defined as an event, to which the public is invited to watch, listen or participate. Special Events include, but are not limited to concerts, fairs, carnivals, flea markets, 5Ks, walkathons, festivals, summer camps, and bicycle events.

• Organizers will be responsible for renting shelters/parking areas/electric as needed for the event. Non-profit entities may request rental fee reductions or waivers from the park board/director (per Policy #89-1) if there is the need for more than one rental facility.
• Vehicle entry fee of $3 will be charged at Ox Bow County Park.
• Submitting an application does not grant you permission to hold your event on park property. Park staff will contact you in writing within three weeks in regards to your application. Please read the Special Event Policy for additional requirements.

Due to limited parking – if you have a large event you will be required to rent the closest shelters to the field you are reserving even if those shelters aren’t used. Otherwise we are unable to rent them to others due to parking overflow.

Most shelters do not have electric. Electric is included with rental fees of Ox Bow Haus Shelter, Cobus Creek Shelter, Briar Patch Shelter, One Room School House and Feedlot Shelter.
